

Humanities

- Create a poster to inform others of how to look after for our woodlands and forests.
- Are there any endangered animals?
- Write an acrostic poem about Harvest.
- Create a leaflet about the Sukkot Festival.
- Create your own Harvest picture.

Home Learning Activities

Awesome Authors:

Julia Donaldson & Roald Dahl

Health & Wellbeing

- Use fruits and vegetables to create your favourite characters face.
- Make your own dream jar like Sophie in the BFG- what dreams have you had that could be included in your jar?
- Write a diary pretending to be Zog - how was he feeling in Dragon School?
- Create a Healthy meal / menu for the Dragons to have in school.
- Create a fitness routine for Willy Wonka to use when working in the chocolate factory.

Expressive Arts

- Create a Gruffalo dance
- Make a Gruffalo song/rap and record it
- Sketch or paint a picture of a character from one of the authors books
- Make character masks using different materials
- Make a puppet show
- Act out Charlie finding the golden ticket!
- Create a model of your favourite character!
- Design and make your own sweet wrapper.

Languages, Literacy & Communication

- Create a diary 'A day in the life of...(a character from one of the books
- Write a different ending to one of the authors books
- Write a book review with a star rating
- Make a character mask and role play your favourite part of the story
- Create a WANTED poster for the Gruffalo -
- Create a fact file about your favourite character
- Write a list of the animals or creatures in Welsh

Science & Technology

- Create your favourite scene from the story (3D shoe box)
- Research different types of animals that live in a wood. Which animals are nocturnal?
- Create a character from your favourite book and include moving parts.
- Using HWB, make your own animation.

Mathematics & Numeracy

- Draw a map of the journey through the Gruffalo or Zog.
- Choose a character and estimate how many times they appear in the illustrations. Record your estimations and how many times they actually appear in a simple table.
- Make a bar chart based on your family's favourite Julia Donaldson books.
- Make your own marvellous medicine just like George - what did you include? Write the recipe and measure it carefully.